

Screenshots Sent to Parker and Timeline

(Please note the actual number of screenshots sent to Parker was 13 and I miscounted)

there has been much confusion over who is who in this situation. Karu is a 16 year old boy who is known by many aliases. The reason why there is so much confusion over why he changes his name so often is not known, but it's safe to assume partly because he is trying to create a new identity separate from the original Karu in order to avoid what has happened over this last week.

July 15th 2019 is when this screenshot originates. The reason why it even exists in the first place wasn't to call out KingCal or over suspicion of the inappropriate relationship. I took the screenshot to talk shit about Karu because I found his claims about being in a college program since 6th grade to be laughable, as Karu has been caught several times lying about random subjects. Those conversations are now lost at this point as most old messages by Karu have been nuked.

July 17th 2019 is when this conversation took place. I was lucky to screenshot this as I'd noticed mostly everything else by the now deleted "Devil Karu" account is gone.

On February 17th 2020 after the Devil Karu account was deleted, shortly after an account called "Lil'roo" popped up and began talking in chat. It was assumed this was Cal's "new" boyfriend. However, before they began talking in the Pkrussl discord server, it turns out they'd already fucked up by revealing their identity to a mod of Pkrussl's server who played dumb.

Now, you'd think this would be enough to link the accounts together, and we've now verified that Karu and Lil'Roo are the same person. Sike. After this Karu went through another username change. However this time, some messages were missing.

Every message indicating Karu is Lil'Roo is now gone. But wait... It turns out they're now "Roo Roo". There is one more username and profile picture change after this, however this happened after Parker had received these screenshots. Probably another attempt at fleeing the accusations and relationship between him and Cal.

Moving forward 3 days later to February 20th 2020 Karu says this:

If it isn't obvious that Roobis is Karu by now... I pray for you. This is the first time we've got evidence of Karu lying about their age. This is interesting because of what he says later, because it seems Karu doesn't know how to do math.

The next day, this conversation occurs on February 21st 2020.

Notice how the screenshot above wasn't included in Parker's video? It was sent to Parker, and if I can I'll include a clip at the end of the document of me scrolling through me and Parker's telegram messages to show this. Now there seems to be a debate over whether this conversation was a joke. As a primary source from this whole event being one of the people in the conversation, I didn't see this as a joke as i was speaking seriously about my relationship and it fit in with the topic.

On the same day, Cal clarifies that he is 22.

Since we've established Karu and Roobis are the same person who are 16, KingCal is 22, and they're very likely in a relationship you'd think this would at least concern you in the slightest. Even if Cal was joking around with Karu about these things, it indicates grooming.

5 days later, February 26th 2020, is when Karu forgets his fake age, or is rusty in the mathematics department.

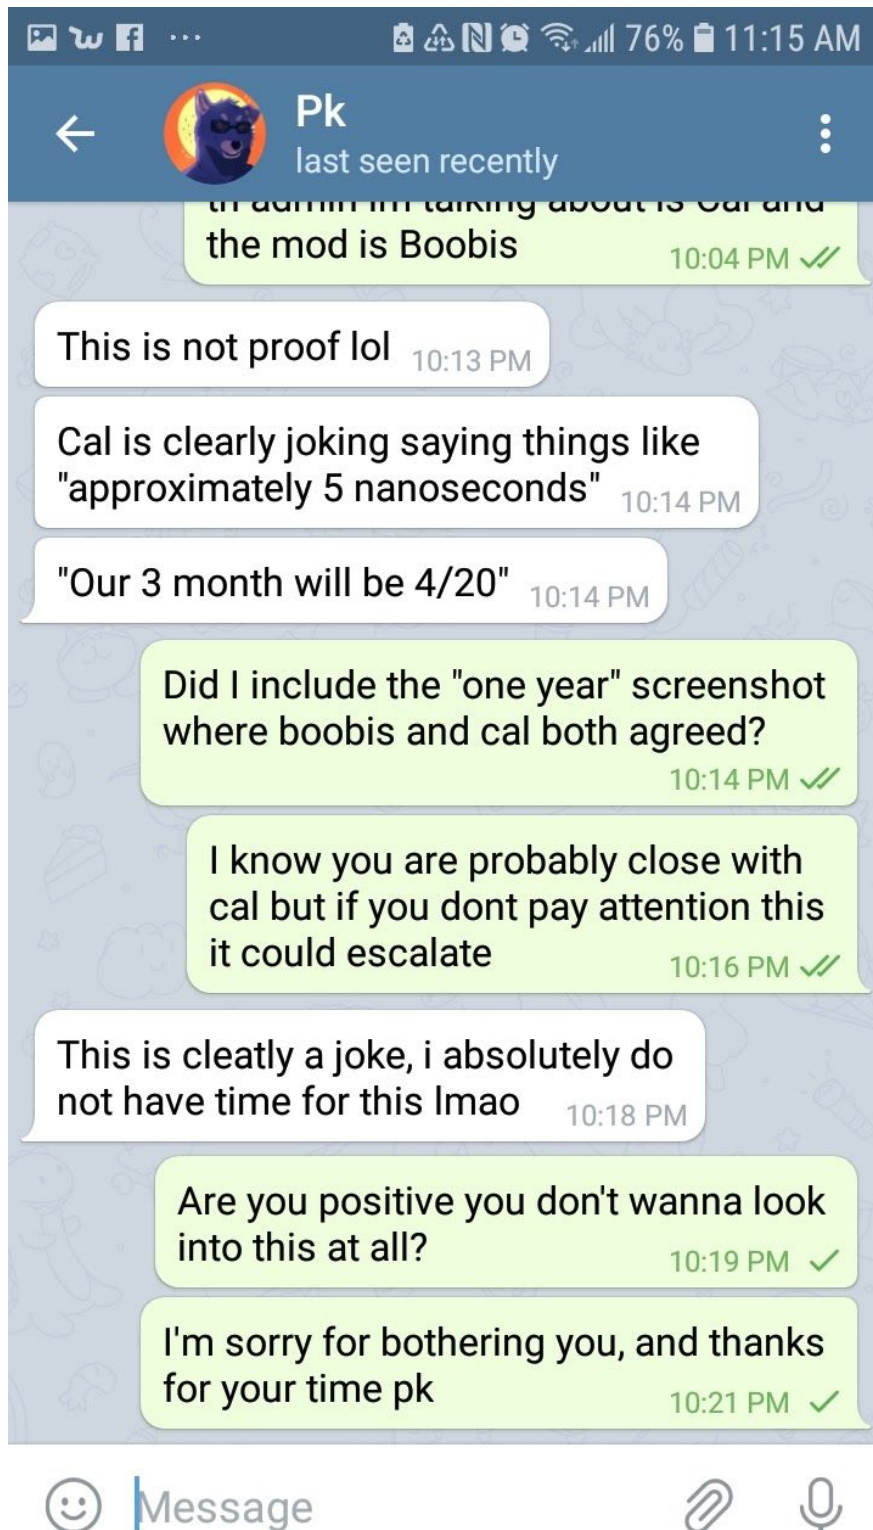

It is worth mentioning the conversation above is about getting a bartender's license. I'm Canadian myself, and these two individuals are from the U.S so I don't know the rules and restrictions. However, here Karu says when he is 21 he will be the best bartender in 2 more years. That would make boobis 19. So what is it? In 2019 your birthday is either in July or later. With your new identity between February 20th and 26th you went from 18 to 19. This doesn't add up.

April 13th 2020 is when I got confirmation from an ex-mod (unmodded after parkers video) that Karu and Roobis are 100% the same person.

As of April 22nd 11:15am, parker hadn't even read the last 2 messages I sent on Telegram.

Some time between then and now at 9:19pm parker has now opened my Telegram messages. Probably in an attempt to tell everyone he didn't ignore me, but I'm not an idiot and I saw this coming. In my newly recorded clip from tonight, Parker has been shown to open my Telegram messages.

Here is the clip of the Telegram dms, sadly I have no idea how to record properly as im not a youtuber.

You can download all screenshots and the video file here on mega. I have a free account so I suggest this is backed up elsewhere.
